No Plans For This Day

August 2 - Scotland Arrival - transfer to Stirlingshire

Private transfer from Glasgow airport to Stirlingshire

Vehicle Category: Mercedes V-Class or Luxury Coach

Stirlingshire, historic county, central Scotland. In the west it borders Loch Lomond and incorporates a section of the Highlands. It extends east into the Midland Valley (Central Lowlands) between the Rivers Forth and Kelvin. At the centre of Stirlingshire the volcanic Campsie Fells and Kilsyth and Gargunnoch hills form an elevated mass amid the Lowlands.

Lunch and a stroll through Scotland's first Craft Town

Nestled on the North Ayrshire coastline overlooking Arran, West Kilbride is Scotland's first accredited Craft Town.

Craft Town Scotland owns nine subsidised studios which are situated along the Main Street in West Kilbride. Our professional makers and artists are varied in their choice of materials and disciplines. The studios are open to the public from Thursday to Saturday 11-4pm.

At the heart of our creativity lies the Barony Centre a recently upgraded church which offers one of the best exhibition centres in the West of Scotland. We provide a programme of exhibitions across the year and we showcase many Scottish makers in our Gallery retail area.

Duration: at leisure

Edinburgh

Edinburgh is the capital of Scotland and it is located in central eastern Scotland, near the Firth of Forth, close to the North Sea. Thanks to its spectacular rocks, rustic buildings and a huge collection of medieval and classic architecture, including numerous stone decorations, it is often considered one of the most lively cities in Europe. Scottish people called it Auld Reekie, Edina, Athens of the North and Britain's Other Eye.

Check in at The Glasshouse

When the 170-year-old Church was converted into The Glasshouse Hotel in 2003, Scotland exchanged one iconic piece of history for another. With , this is a standout among luxury boutique hotels and is considered one of the finest places to stay in Edinburgh. This historic luxury hotel in Edinburgh features cozy-contemporary interiors, warm Scottish service and consistently spectacular views of the city centre, Calton Hill or the hotel's rooftop garden.

In 2018 the hotel's reception was fully refurbished; the crisp modern lines and vibrant lighting, creating a dramatic juxtaposition between the historic and gothic church façade, and the striking modern and luxurious space behind.

August 8 - The Royal Edinburgh Military Tattoo

The Grand Finale: The Edinburgh Royal Military Tattoo

Our story began over seven decades ago and had humble beginnings. It was inspired by a simple show called 'Something About a Soldier' performed in 1949 at the Ross Bandstand. The bandstand is still there, in Princes Street Gardens just below the Castle. Make sure to look out for it when you visit. Lieutenant Colonel George Malcolm was the first Producer of The Edinburgh Tattoo. He aimed to bring the Army's contribution to the Edinburgh International Festival to life. From a modest event in a park to today's global showcase at the Castle.
